Electrical Testing

6th August 2008

Dear Sirs,

MORGAN CASS LTD

We can confirm that we have dealt with Morgan Cass over a number of years now. During this time we have found them to be exemplary in their work, communications, payments and overall project delivery whilst testing and commissioning their electrical installation work. We firmly believe their clients successful project delivery has been down to the Morgan Cass quality of work evident, thus making them one of the best commercial opportunities in London.

We strongly recommend Morgan Cass not only as experts within their field but a reliable and solid supplier.

Yours Faithfully

Mark Traill
